

“I’M NOT THE SAME ME I WAS WHEN I OPENED THIS BOOK”

How to get out of your own way: The guide to holding yourself accountable!

A lot of times we say we want to be successful, we want to live a certain lifestyle, and we would do anything to go out and get it. Right? But, deep down inside we’re not even close to living up to it. Our mindset won’t let us. Oftentimes, we are so afraid of success that we tell ourselves “It could never happen to me.” Subconsciously, we really start to believe it. That mindset then hinders us. It prohibits us from living a life of fullness, a life of prosperity and a life that only we can master.

We are creatures of habit. So, living a certain lifestyle and believing certain things for a long period of time conditions our mind to think that we aren’t supposed to have the better things in life, we aren’t supposed to connect with people on different levels than ourselves, we’re supposed to sit in a cubicle until we turn 65 or 67, (one of em), you begin to put crazy limitations on yourself, which then places you in a box. A box of fear, a box of standing still, and a box of failing yourself. A bunch of should haves, could haves and would haves. Why let yourself down like that? We are all here for a bigger purpose. I’m not sure what your divine purpose is but, if you’re reading this book I’m sure it’s in the direction of serving people and living out a life full of happiness.

That’s the life we all want right? Then why stand there? GET OUT OF YOUR OWN WAY!!!

Let go of the fear, the doubt, and the limitations!

Let’s do this together. I’m not here to point fingers at you. I’m truly here to help you get a jumpstart on living a life of independence, freedom, and wealth. Just a girl from the Westside of Chicago living out her mission of helping others. Yes, I made it this far and now I’m FINALLY able to put my thoughts into action and to help you, and others like you who want to make a difference in the world.

Fact is: I’m helping myself as well. We’re in this TOGETHER!

Truth is we all have come up with excuses as to why productivity is down. And we’ve all told ourselves we’d get to it and never did. Holding ourselves accountable can really help us progress. The best way to hold yourself accountable is to have a repeatable system that you can follow on a day-to-day basis that allows you to measure your results, to know whether you are cultivating, going nowhere or reverting.

Here’s a few ways you can move forward and start achieving the success you desire.
